We are pleased to announce that Katherine Leibowitz will be co-presenting a webinar for Strafford entitled, “Negotiating Clinical Trial Agreements: Balancing the Interests of Sponsors and Healthcare Providers,” on Wednesday, April 26th.

Along with co-speakers Amanda Coulter and Kate Duffy Mazan, Katherine will review risk mitigation provisions in CTAs, including indemnification, subject injury, insurance, cybersecurity and more. The speakers will explore data rights, intellectual property, publications, confidentiality and other important CTA terms. They will discuss variations in study site structure and impact on the CTA. The webinar also dives into best practices for effective CTA negotiations.

There will be a live Q&A during which Katherine and her co-presenters can answer your questions directly.

CLE credit is available.

The webinar is on Wednesday, April 26, 2023, from 1 – 2:30 p.m. Eastern time.

This is a great program for healthcare counsel and specialists who review and negotiate clinical trial agreements.
