We are pleased to announce that Katherine Leibowitz will be presenting a webinar on Managing Risk by Contract- Sponsor Perspectives on Clinical Trial Agreements on October 5, 2023, at 2 p.m. EST.

This hour-long webinar is free of charge. We will receive the registration link from CITI Program 1-2 weeks before the event and will post it on this page, so please check back.

The webinar will be chock-full of clinical trial lawyers' favorite CTA topics, including:

- Study data, source records and specimens
- Impact of digital health technologies (DHTs), decentralized clinical trials (DCTs) and cybersecurity concerns on CTA negotiations
- Subject injury, indemnification and insurance
- Best practices for effective CTA negotiations
- Live Q&A at the end

The Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (CITI Program) is well-known in the IRB world, as many IRBs require their investigators and study personnel to complete specific CITI training. CITI is "dedicated to serving the training needs of colleges and universities, healthcare institutions, technology and research organizations, and governmental agencies, as they foster integrity and professional advancement of their learners."
